Parents are provided with an opt-in clause below, in which parents may choose to consent to their child using webcam during the recorded session. For parents that do not opt-in, their child will not be permitted to use webcam during the session but will be able to participate in the programming with the platform chat box.

We have taken precautions in providing this programming. However, we feel we have the responsibility to share with you the risks associated with any online activity. These risks include but are not limited to the risk of your child switching screens and viewing age-inappropriate content and pornography, the risk of online predators securing access, your child disclosing personal information and cyberbullying, and viruses.
